

aeoon Technologies is a global technology leader for industrial inkjet printing systems with its headquarters in Kramsach. Our success is based on the competence and professionalism of our employees. To expand our young, dynamic team we are looking for a:

Employee for Color- Management (full time)

Your responsibilities:

- Analysis of print problems with appropriate solution finding for our dtg printing machines
- Colormangement for various applications
- Collaboration with our application specialists, the inkjet team and the aeoon Laboratory for new product developments

Our requirements:

- Software and optionally also RIP technology knowledge
- Graduation in graphic design, technician, mechatronics or comparable training or work experience
- Experience in inkjet as well as in color management of advantage
- Knowledge of application technology
- Independent, solution-oriented work
- High quality awareness
- Exceptional German and English language skills, other languages of advantage

We offer:

- In-depth training in your new working area
- 38.5h / week, flexitime
- Varied and multi-faceted activity
- A pleasant working atmosphere in an international team, in which teamwork and flat hierarchies are capitalized.
- The opportunity for further education in a growing company, which would like to share the success with its employees.
- Modern workplace in a well-connected location.

We are looking forward to receiving your complete application (including CV and photo) to jobs@aeoon.com or in writing. aeoon Technologies GmbH, Amerling 133, 6233 Kramsach, Austria, c/h Mrs. Kreidl.